TCRA LIBRARY

Over the winter, many boxes of books were dropped off at the TCRA library. Most of these books will need to be disposed of. We do not have room for encyclopedia and reference, atlas, religious, etc., nor do we have room for all the hard cover books. The original shelving units were built to hold paperback books.

Paperback novels, romance, westerns and war stories are popular.

There is a group of shelves for children's books and a section of French books. When space and time permit, there will be a non-fiction section. Also, where space permits, hard cover books already in the library will be available.

Please use the library. Access is available when the Municipal Office is open.

BUT
PLEASE DO NOT LEAVE
HARD COVER BOOKS

DIPLOMAT: A man who can convince his wife she would look fat in a fur coat.
GENTLEMAN: A husband who steadies the stepladder so that his wife will not fall while she paints the ceiling.
HOUSEWORK: What the wife does that nobody notices until she doesn't do it.
HUSBAND: a man who gives up the privileges he never realized he had.
WIFE: A mate who is forever complaining about not having anything to wear at the very same time that she complains about not having enough room in the closet.
MOTHER-IN-LAW: A woman who can destroy her son-in-law's peace of mind by giving him a piece of hers.

A woman came home from the store with two cases of beer, three bottles of wine, a bottle of whiskey and two loaves of bread.

"Are we expecting company?" her husband asked.

"No," she replied.

"Then why did you buy so much bread?"

*

A doctor examining a woman who had been rushed to the Emergency Room, took the husband aside, and said, "I don't like the looks of your wife at all."

"Me neither doc," said the husband, "but she's a great cook and really good with the kids."

A man is sitting in a fancy restaurant when his food finally arrives. As the plate is being served, the man notices the waiter has his thumb resting on the edge of his steak.

“Umm, excuse me,” the man says, “but I couldn’t help but notice you had your thumb on my steak.”

“Yes, I know, sir,” responded the waiter, “that’s because I wanted to make sure not to drop it again.”
